

Health Policy Analyst Position Description

Position: Health Policy Analyst – Full Time

About CCLP:

The Colorado Center on Law and Policy (CCLP) is a 501c3 non-profit organization. CCLP's mission is to secure justice and economic security for all Coloradans. CCLP translates policy into action by applying its legal, programmatic and economic expertise to the goals of access to quality, affordable health care for all Coloradans and family economic security. Specific objectives include legal, legislative and administrative advocacy, research, education and coalition building.

Position Description:

The Health Policy Analyst will work to increase access to affordable, quality health care through research, advocacy, education, and coalition building. CCLP focuses particularly on access to public programs, including Medicaid and CHP+, health care access and affordability and the smooth implementation of health care reform. The position requires demonstrated skills in research and policy analysis and excellent written and oral presentation skills.

Qualifications – Required:

- Have a demonstrated commitment to working on behalf of low -income individuals and families.
- Have at least five years of relevant experience
- Have experience advancing a public policy agenda.
- Have a strong health care policy background, preferably with a good understanding of Colorado's health care landscape, including public and private health insurance programs.
- Have excellent research, writing and oral presentation skills.
- Experience with detailed statutory and regulatory analysis
- Be comfortable with and have experience making presentations to a wide range of audiences.
- Be willing to work in collaboration with health consumers, businesses and health care providers.
- Be an independent and creative thinker and work well as part of a team.
- Be capable of developing and maintaining relationships with a wide variety of policy makers, stakeholders and constituencies.

Qualifications - Preferred:

- Graduate or law degree.
- Experience working with state and/or federal lawmakers.
- Quantitative research skills.

Compensation and Benefits

The position is a full time position beginning immediately. The Health Policy Analyst reports to the Health Care Program Director. Salary range is $50,000-$60,000 depending on qualifications and experience. CCLP provides a generous benefits package.

Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action

CCLP is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer and is working to expand the communities we serve and represent. We strongly encourage applicants from communities, constituencies, and identities that are under-represented in health care advocacy, including but not limited to: people of diverse ethnic/racial backgrounds/people with disabilities, low-income and LGBT persons.

To Apply

Submit a resume, writing sample of no more than five pages, and a cover letter by email to Kesi Relyea at krelyea@cclponline.org.

Initial review of applications will begin on April 7th. No phone calls, please.

CCLP Policy Search

Kesi Relyea

789 Sherman Street, #300

Denver, CO 80203

KRelyea@cclponline.org

For further information about CCLP, please visit our website at www.cclponline.org.