COMMUNITIES AGAINST POVERTY

CCLP's signature annual event

Each year, Colorado Center on Law and Policy hosts a celebratory event to recognize the incredible work of the individuals and organizations in the field of anti-poverty work across our state. This event includes a keynote speech by a nationally recognized thought leader as well as the annual Champions of Economic Justice and Equity Awards ceremony.

Now in its 8th year, this celebration offers public officials, opinion-leaders, community organizers and members of Colorado's health care, public policy, philanthropic, governmental, and nonprofit sectors an opportunity to hear from a provocative and influential speaker, to exchange ideas, and to network with friends and colleagues.

Due to the unique circumstances of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, CCLP will once again be hosting the event virtually for 2021. Attendees will still hear from our renowned keynote speaker, Dr. Keeanga-Yamahtta Taylor, and will be able ask live questions as in years past.

Colorado Center on Law and Policy is a nonprofit, nonpartisan research and advocacy organization that stands with diverse communities across Colorado in the fight against poverty through research, legislation, and legal advocacy.

We envision a Colorado where everyone has what they need to succeed.

Keynote by Dr. Keeanga-Yamahtta Taylor

Author, Scholar, Activist

Dr. Keeanga-Yamahtta Taylor is the author of Race for Profit: How Banks and the Real Estate Industry Undermined Black Homeownership, published in 2019 by University of North Carolina Press. Race for Profit was a semi-finalist for the 2019 National Book Award and a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize in History in 2020.

Taylor is a contributing writer at The New Yorker. Her writing has appeared in the LA Times, Boston Review, Paris Review, The Guardian, The Nation, Jacobin, and Souls: A Critical Journal of Black Politics, Culture, and Society, among others. She is a former contributing opinion writer for The New York Times.

In 2016, she was named one of the hundred most influential African Americans in the United States by The Root. In 2018 Essence Magazine named her among the top 100 “change makers” in the country. She has been appointed as a Distinguished Lecturer for the Organization of American Historians by the Organization of American Historians.

Champions of Economic Justice & Equity Awards

Our annual Champions of Economic Justice & Equity Awards ceremony recognizes the Colorado Economic Security Legislator of the Year, the Colorado Economic Security Partner Organization of the Year, the Colorado Economic Security Advocate of the Year, and the Colorado Economic Security Government Partner of the Year. We will be unveiling these champions over the course of the next few weeks, but we anticipate this expanded award schedule will enable us to recognize a more appropriate group of the amazing champions that we work with every day.
